

Welcome New/Returning Archers,

We are excited to welcome you to the 2026 season! The archery season will begin January 12/13th and practices will be held weekly through competition; see attached schedule.

Below you will find a summary of the season plans and instructions to follow to reserve your archery spot as space is limited.

- Archery classes will be available on MONDAYS or TUESDAYS.
- Following 4-H Shooting Sports Guidelines there will be one coach for every 10 4-H members participating in the program. Our facility's maximum capacity is 20 shooters per session.
- We currently have 15 right hand and 6 left hand genesis bows per session. Youth will have to reserve a bow upon registration, this will ensure a bow is set to parameters that best fit your child for the season.
- We currently are looking for two types of volunteers to build our archery program: certified 4-H volunteers and certified archery instructors.

Become a certified 4-H Volunteer: We are currently looking for two total adults over the age of 18 to be volunteers on either Monday or Tuesday 2 per day for archery. They would help with sign-in, collecting documents as instructed by the 4-H agents, and help fill in gaps for the coaches. There is NO cost to become a certified volunteer; you must apply to be a volunteer and be trained. This happens locally. Your help is invaluable and appreciated!

Become an archery instructor/coach: Please notify us if you are interested so we can start the process of clearing you and registering. You must be 21 or older. The cost is $100 to become an instructor. There are 6 hours of online training prior to the in-class event and 9 hours of in person training. The training is from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. If you are interested in attending and becoming a coach, stop by to apply to become a certified volunteer.

- Please note, there are other disciplines if you are interested in starting or helping with a different shooting sports program. This includes shotgun, rifle, air rifle or BB, and hunting/outdoor skills.

Below is a list of the programs to be offered:

- 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM (MONDAY) Advance Genesis or Other Archery

If you are unable to attend, please be sure to have another adult attend to represent your family. There are no make-ups due to the availability of all coaches. We will go over all necessary information FIRST and then have tables with a minimum of one coach or agent that will take information for your specific time slot and verify that each member is in the right category. Returning members verify their assigned time slot post preference request at this time. We will open the remaining slots for those in attendance to the appropriate session on a first come first serve basis. If you do not attend the meeting and pay on November 6th, your 4-H member(s) may be removed from the list to make space for new people.

Raising Money for Archery

Every year, 4-H Members can raise money for 4-H through Paper Clover at the Tractor Supply. This is a great way to pay for your season fees. It is REALLY easy and members raise $20-$100 on average per hour worked! All your family must do is sign up for a slot during the week. You stand by the register at Tractor Supply and ask for someone to add a donation to their purchase to help support the 4-H program. We get 70% of donations directly to our county, 10% to the state program, and 10% to national 4-H. One bow cost $122. Arrows per person per season cost $16. If every archer last year participated and raised $20, we could buy more advanced bows, new targets, and a box of arrows! This Fall Paper Clover Week dates are November 28th- Dec 14th. Each member must sign up for at least one session: tiny.utk.edu/pc

We hope this helps you feel prepared as we enter our new season! Please be sure to fill out your survey and ask any questions soon. We look forward to seeing you again! At the end of this letter, we have included the forms you will need to sign up. Feel free to go ahead and fill them out for the meeting!

Sincerely,

Alyssa Anderson

Youth/Parent/ Volunteer Code of Conduct Contract

The Purpose

The purpose of this form is to set up 4-H youth, parents, volunteers, and extension for success when participating in 4-H each year.

Our first priority is to create a safe, inclusive space for learning, sharing, and collaborating. We welcome people from diverse backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives. Diversity is a key value of 4-H.

The University of Tennessee is an EEO/AA/Title VI/Title IX/Section 504/ADA/ADEA institution in the provision of its education and employment programs and services. All qualified applicants will receive equal consideration for employment and admission without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, physical or mental disability, genetic information, veteran status, and parental status.

All 4-H participants- youth, families, volunteers, and extension staff- in or attending any activity or event sponsored by the University of Tennessee's Extension program are required to uphold these values and conduct themselves according to these standards. The standards also apply to online activity, including social media and internet presence.

Ground Rules

Overton County 4-H holds their community to a high set of standards.

As a 4-H Participant/parent/guardian, I will obey these ground rules:

1. Create a Welcoming Environment for All. Encourage everyone to fully participate in University of Tennessee Extension and 4-H. Recognize that all people have skills and talents that can help others and improve the community. Though we will not always agree, we must disagree respectfully. When we disagree, try to understand why.
2. Bring Your Best Self. Respect and follow all Cooperative Extension rules, policies, and guidelines. Youth, parents, and volunteers shall obey the Tennessee 4-H Youth Development Event and Activity Misconduct Guidelines Form F834. Conduct yourself in a manner that reflects honesty, integrity, self-control, and self-direction from other's perspectives. Accept the results and outcomes of 4-H contests with grace and empathy for other participants. Accept the final opinions of judges and evaluators. Be open to new ideas, suggestions, and opinions of others.
3. Participate Fully. Youth, parents, and volunteers shall participate fully in all programs outlined for the activity or event. Work cooperatively with Extension Staff, Volunteers, 4-H'ers, and all involved in 4-H programs and activities. Participate in a way that insures the safety, well-being, and quality of the educational experiences of self and others. Have Fun! If you are unable to attend, contact the extension agent in advance. Participate in county, regional, and state activities and events as much as possible to gain a well-rounded 4-H experience. Help plan future 4-H community service projects, exhibits, workshops and demonstrations as needed.

4. Stay up to date. Read 4-H mail, related texts, reminds, and social media posts in a timely fashion. Respond in a timely fashion to extension agents about being involved. Check the websites (county, regional, and state), including social media, for updates on opportunities.
5. Communicate. Youth talk to your parents and guardians about meetings, projects and activities. Parents and guardians, talk to your youth about upcoming responsibilities in 4-H. You are responsible for keeping a current 4-H calendar of meetings and activities. It is your responsibility to meet your assigned duties and to ask for help as needed. Communicate with others about your 4-H experiences. Invite new people to meetings and provide them with the information needed to fully participate.
6. Be a team player. Be responsible to the reasonable requests of the people in charge. Respect the integrity of the group and the group's decisions.
7. Create a Safe Environment. Do not carelessly or intentionally harm youth or adults in any way (verbally, mentally, physically or emotionally). Refrain from romantic displays and sexual activities either in public or private situations. Be kind and compassionate towards others. Do not insult or put down other participants. Harassment, bullying and other exclusionary behavior are not acceptable. Be considerate and courteous of all youth and adults and their property.
 - a. Youth, parents, and volunteers shall show respect for the property and facilities used during the activity, event, or club meeting and assume financial responsibility for any damages they cause.
 - b. Report any and all accidents, physical or verbal abuse, or unsafe conditions that threaten the emotional or physical well-being of others or yourself to the Extension Agent or Volunteer as soon as possible. Volunteers and 4-H leaders are to report this to the next level of leadership.
8. Be a positive role model. Youth, parents, and volunteers conduct at all times shall be appropriate to the standards and image of the 4-H Program. Act in a mature, responsible manner, recognizing you are role models for others, and that you are representing yourself, the University of Tennessee, and the 4-H Youth Development Program. Be responsible for your behavior. This includes using positive and affirming language and upholding exemplary standards of conduct at all 4-H activities. Swearing, using negative language, putting others down, and demanding special privileges is setting a bad example.
9. Be respectful to the environment. Demonstrate the responsible treatment of animals and stewardship to the environment. Make sure places you visit are better than when you arrived.
10. Dress appropriately. Use your best judgement when participating. Wear clothing suited for the activity you are participating in. Clothing promoting alcohol, and other intoxicants, or displaying messages that are racist sexist, homophobic, political or any other degrading message that detrimentally affects the dignity and respect of members of our community are never acceptable. Do not wear revealing clothing, such as short skirts or shorts, midriff-baring tops, pants with holes, and sagging pants. If an event requires specific attire that is not within your budget, the 4-H agent can help you find some from a donor. If you are unsure about what is appropriate, contact UT Extension Overton County in advance.

11. Obey the Law. Commit NO illegal acts. Tobacco products, illegal drug use, alcohol, weapons, fireworks, and any other item that could cause injury or bodily harm will not be tolerated at any 4-H event or activity. This includes the use of these products prior or during. This includes the distribution of these products. For adults, tobacco use must be off UT Extension Property.
12. Adhere to program specific policies. Each program may have additional program rules, curfews, dress codes, and policies. All involved are responsible for obeying those rules. You are responsible for all information listed in 4-H handbooks, 600a forms, and 4-H activity policies.
13. A 4-H member, parent, or volunteer is still a 4-H member, parent, or volunteer both in and out of club meetings. Following these guidelines is a good rule for life. You are responsible for your conduct both in and out of club meetings. Conduct yourself in a manner that makes yourself, your family, 4-H club, school, county and state proud.

All those involved in 4-H understand and accept the responsibility for following the above guidelines, and realize that failure to do so many result in the participant being sent home from the activity or event at his or her own expense and/or made ineligible to participate in future 4-H events or activities. You understand that failure to comply with these rules and/or failing to meet these expectations could result in a temporary ban, permanent ban, or removing someone from a leadership position.
