

4-H LIVESTOCK JUDGING

4-H Livestock Judging is a program to teach 4-H members to evaluate market and breeding animals, how to make decisions, and to communicate those decisions. Every livestock farmer or future livestock farmer benefits from this program.

Open to 4-12th graders.

New members welcome.

In State and Out of State Travel

August-April Season

2nd & 3rd Tuesday Practices with Mrs. Nicole after school at the extension office.

Sundays 1 PM Practices with
Coach Brad Bennett at Extension
Office or on a farm.

Our livestock judging group is set up for judging practice and oral reason practice with Coach Brad on Sundays. On Tuesdays, our practices are set up to help youth learn terminology.

Youth are encourage to participate in practices led by Mrs. Nicole and Coach Brad. Prior to registering youth for contests, Mrs. Nicole and Coach Brad will discuss if youth are eligible to compete based on practice attendance, online practice completion, and performance.

To get reminders about practice, sign up here: <https://www.remind.com/join/4hoclivest>.

